DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In response to the Amendment received on September 03, 2009, the examiner has carefully considered the amendments. Regarding the status of the previous office action. The office action was a non-final office. The examiner deemed despite the cover letter being marked both final and non-final, it is clear from the body of the office action the status was non-final. As other evidence the PAIR system also shows the office action as a non-final rejection.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed 9/03/2009, with respect to claims 1-11 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1, 3-6, and 10-11 under 35 USC 102 (a and e) as being anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 USC 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Doi et al (2005/0148676) as being has been withdrawn. Applicant's have successfully argued the prior art reference is not prior art, as well as, having perfected the filing date of the instantly claimed invention with the submission of the translated foreign priority document.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-11 are allowed.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art, alone or in combination, fails to set forth a radiation curable composition for a lens sheet comprising a mixture of an epoxy (meth) acrylate, the bifunctional (meth) acrylate monomer expressed by general formula (1), a bifunctional (meth) acrylate expressed by general formula (2) and a bifunctional (meth) acrylate monomer that is the reaction product of (meth) acrylic acid and an aliphatic dihydric alcohol having an oxyalkylene structure, as well as, a mono-functional (meth) acrylate and a thermoplastic resin. Nor does the prior art set forth a lens sheet obtained from curing the above defined composition.

Art Unit: 1796

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
